This letter is in response to your March 3, 1999 request for a supplement to our prior letter ruling (CC:DOM:CORP:3, PLR-118625-98) dated January 28, 1999 (the "Prior Letter Ruling"). The facts and representations set forth in the Prior Letter Ruling are hereby incorporated, except as modified below, for purposes of this supplemental ruling.

The proposed transaction described in the Prior Letter Ruling has been modified in two respects:

First, in the Prior Letter Ruling, Distributing was to continue to provide cash management services to Controlled pursuant to a cash management agreement, and provide certain management and operational services to Controlled pursuant to a services agreement during a transition period, if any, not expected to exceed 12 months from the date of the transaction as described in item 10 on page 7 of the Prior Letter Ruling. It is now proposed that Distributing and Controlled will make their employees available to each other as necessary during a transition period, if any, not expected to exceed 12 months from the date of the transaction. And, the company rendering the services will be entitled to receive payment from the other company for the reasonable costs and expenses incurred in providing such services.

Second, in the Prior Letter Ruling, Distributing and Controlled were to share their chief financial officer and general counsel after the transaction for a transition period that will terminate promptly, but in no event more than 12 months following the transaction as described in item 9 on pages 6-7 of the Prior Letter Ruling. It is now proposed that the transition period for sharing the chief financial officer and general counsel will last up to 36 months, and that during such period the two individuals involved will continue to provide general business advice to both Distributing and Controlled (even if during that period they cease to act formally as chief financial officer or general counsel, respectively, of one of the companies).

Based on the information submitted, we hold as follows:

- (1) The additional facts set forth in the supplemental ruling request will have no adverse effect on the rulings set forth in the Prior Letter Ruling and such rulings will remain in full force and effect.
